

JOSEPH WILLIAM JOHNSON

Joseph William Johnson September 17, 1958 - April 4, 2008 Joe Johnson passed away suddenly in San Francisco at the age of 49. Joe grew up in Pittsburg and Oakley, and graduated from Liberty Union High School in 1976. Joe was a creative chef, restaurateur and caterer. He owned and operated two Sheffields Restaurants in SF, where he resided for the last 14 years. Joe had an amazing sense of humor, and was a talented musician who enjoyed participating with his church choir. Joe was predeceased by his parents, Jim and Jeanine Johnson. He is survived by his brother Jim E. (Lisa) Johnson; sister, Janyce (Bob) Svoboda; ex-wife and friend, Sandy Johnson-Dexel, and brother-in-law, Doug Clanton. Joe is also survived by his beloved dog, Cracker Jack, and many friends in the Bay Area. Friends and family are invited to a Memorial Service on Wednesday, April 9, 2008 at 1:00 PM at Pittsburg Funeral Chapel, Pittsburg, CA (925) 432-2114.

Published in the San Francisco Chronicle on 4/8/2008.

Notice • Guest Book • Flowers • Gift Shop

Today's San Francisco Chronicle death notices

Questions about death notices or Guest Books?

Contact Legacy.com • Terms of use

Powered by Legacy.com[®]
obituaries nationwide

Back